DMFCO STRENGTHENS SUPERVISORY BOARD WITH JELLIE BANGA AND BAS NIEUWEWEME

The Hague, 18 September 2025

DMFCO, the market leader in Dutch mortgage investments with over €33 billion in assets under management, has appointed two new members to its Supervisory Board as of September 2025. Jellie Banga, Executive Board Member at Invest-NL, will become Chair. Bas NieuweWeme, former Global CEO of Aegon Asset Management, will join as a board member.

Jellie Banga

Since 2023, Jellie Banga has served on the Executive Board of Invest-NL, the national financing and development institution that funds sustainable and innovative enterprises. Prior to this, she was a member of the Executive Board of Triodos Bank for eight years, responsible for commercial and operational activities across six European countries. Earlier in her career, she spent twelve years in various strategic and management roles at ING.

Bas NieuweWeme

Bas NieuweWeme was CEO of Aegon Asset Management from 2019 to 2024, where he managed €350 billion in assets and served on the Management Board of Aegon Group. Before that, he held executive positions at PGIM (Prudential Financial), Voya Investment Management, and ING Investment Management. From 2019 to 2024, he also served as Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board of La Banque Postale Asset Management. He currently serves on the Supervisory Board of Clearwater Analytics and is a Senior Advisor to the Boston Consulting Group.

CEO Rogier van der Hijden: "We are delighted to welcome Jellie and Bas to our Supervisory Board. Their impressive experience in asset management and sustainable finance will support us in further building a future-proof organisation for our institutional clients."

Jellie Banga succeeds Dirk Stolp, who steps down as Chair after eight years. Rogier van der Hijden: "We are deeply grateful to Dirk for his unwavering dedication. His vision and engagement have been instrumental to DMFCO's development."

The Supervisory Board is now composed of Chair Jellie Banga, Dennis Dijkstra (former CEO of Flow Traders), Wouter Wolffenbuttel (HAL Investments), and Bas NieuweWeme.
